Vino je nekaj posebnega, je plod rodovitne zemlje, sonca in trdega dela vinogradnika ter vinarja, je zgodba dolge in zlahne tradicije. Vino nikakor ni samo alkoholna pijača, je živa tekočina, in tako se je do njega tudi treba obnašati. Pokušnja vina je doživetje, ki se mu je treba prepustiti od prve do zadnje kapljice. Vino je ustekleničena poezija. Je neizpeta zgodba, vsako leto in z vsakim vinom se piše nova.

Slovenci smo znani ljubitelji vina. Pridelujemo raznolika vina, ki po kakovosti spadajo v sam svetovni vrh. Slovenija je majhna dežela, pa vendar polna bogate kulture. Vinsko bogastvo te majhne dežele je moč čutiti od Podravja preko Posavja vse do Primorske. Tod se odvija na tisoče vinskih zgodb in vsaki od njih je vredno prisluhniti. Vinorodna lega, podnebje, sorta, človekovo razumevanje in odnos do trte se zrcalijo v vinu in vsak od teh dejavnikov mu daje značilen pečat.

Slovenijo karakterizirajo ekstraktno bogata in kompleksna vina s toplejših območij pa tudi lažja in sveža vina z vzhoda. Široka paleta, ki zajema vina od suhih sortnih in zvrsti do sladkih predikatov, od namiznih do vrhunskih vin, ki še posebej izstopajo. Pridelujemo mirna in peneča vina, na katera smo še posebej ponosni v Gornji Radgoni, kjer se ponášamo s 170 letno tradicijo pridelovanja in donegovanja najbolj opojnih mehurčkov v tej deželi. Penina je zlahna pijača, praznična, vendar taka, da nikoli ni odveč.

Na svoji vinski poti želimo zgodbo o vinu predajati naprej in čim več ljudi navdušiti za bogastva, ki jih premore naša dežela. Slovenija je zakladnica vinske in prehranske kulture. Vino ni rado samo, potrebuje družbo ljudi in tudi jedi. Vino se drugače predstavi ob jedi, takrat jo dopolni in jo naredi bolj okusno. Odlična slovenska vina si podajajo roko z bogato slovensko kulinariko. Želim si, da bi Slovenija kot dežela vina izstopala s svojo ponudbo, ker si to tudi zasluži, zato je treba dober glas o naši deželi razširiti po vsem svetu.

Meta Frangež, 23. Vinska kraljica Slovenije

Wine is something special, it is the fruit of fertile soil, the sun, and the hard work of the winegrower and wine-maker, and it is the story of a long and noble tradition. Wine is by no means just an alcoholic drink, it is a living liquid, and so should be treated as such. Wine tasting is an experience that should be surrendered to, from the first to the last drop. Wine is bottled poetry. It is an unspoken story, each year and with each new wine a new story is written.

Slovenes are renowned wine lovers. We produce diverse wines, which in terms of quality are world-class. Slovenia is a small country, but full of rich culture. The wine richness of this small country can be felt from the Podravje region, through Posavje and all the way to the Primorska region. Here thousands of wine stories unfold and each one is worth listening to. The wine-growing location, climate, variety, human understanding and attitude towards the vine are all mirrored in a wine, and each of these factors gives it a distinctive seal.

Slovenija is characterized by extract rich and complex wines from its warmer areas, as well as lighter and fresh wines from the east. The wide palette of wines, which include dry varieties and cuvée to sweet predicate wines, from table to superior fine wines, which in particular stand out. We produce still and sparkling wines, which we are particularly proud of in Gornja Radgona, where we boast a 170 year tradition in the cultivation and vinification of the most intoxicating bubbles in this country. Champagne is a noble drink, festive, but as such it is never superfluous.

On my wine journey, I want to pass on the story of wine and excite as many people as possible about this wealth our country has. Slovenia is a treasure trove of wine and food culture. Wine does not like to be alone, it needs the company of people and also dishes. Wine is different when it is served with food, at that time it supplements it and makes the food more delicious. Excellent Slovenian wines go hand in hand with the rich Slovenian cuisine. As a wine country and because it is well deserved, I wish that Slovenia could stand out with its offer, and for that reason the good reputation of our country should be spread all over the world.

Meta Frangež, 23. Wine Queen of Slovenia

Vinska kraljica Slovenije je cvetica slovenskih vin, krona slovenskega vinogradništva in vinorodne dežele. Je poslanica slovenskega turizma in kulturne dediščine.

Za Vinsko kraljico Slovenije vsako leto posebna komisija na osnovi javnega natečaja izbere dekle, ki dokaže svojo ljubezen do vinogradniškega izročila ... Dekle, ki zna in zmore širiti kulturo pridelovanja, negovanja in kulturnega uživanja vina kamorkoli v svet.

Da sodi Pomurski sejem med najbolj zveste dvorjane in rezidence vinske kulture, dokazuje v juliju z Odprtim državnim ocenjevanjem vin - Vino Slovenija Gornja Radgona, vsako leto v avgustu s predstavitevjo vinogradništva na Mednarodnem kmetijsko-živilskem sejmu AGRA, vsako pomlad z mednarodnimi ocenjevanji kakovosti prehrabnih izdelkov, ter vse leto z Vinskim hramom, ki je na sejmišču v Gornji Radgoni pravo svetišče plemenite kapljice ...

The Wine Queen of Slovenia is the bouquet of Slovenian wines, the crown of Slovenian wine growing and an ambassador of Slovenian tourism and cultural heritage.

Every year in an open competition an expert jury panel chooses a girl who proves her love for the wine growing tradition... A girl who knows how and is able to proclaim the culture of wine making, nurturing and consumption throughout the world.

Pomurski Sejem proves to be one of the most faithful ambassadors and courts of wine culture as clearly demonstrated with its organisation of open national wine assessment Vino Slovenija Gornja Radgona, the presentation of wine growing and winery at the International Agricultural-Food Fair AGRA and the Wine House at the Gornja Radgona fair ground that is a true sanctuary of noble wine ...
